About The Dragon Foundation

The year 2000 was celebrated both as the start of the new millennium, as well as the Year of the Dragon in Chinese culture. To commemorate this auspicious date, The Hong Kong Federation of Youth Groups, the Home Affairs Bureau of the Hong Kong Special Administrative Region (HKSAR) Government and the All-China Youth Federation co-organized a project entitled, "Dragon at the Great Wall – Commemorating the New Millennium: a Vision for Youth".

What the project entailed was a Youth Conference on Meeting the Challenges of the New Millennium. The main theme of the Conference was Visualizing the Trends of Global Development and the Challenges of the 21st Century and was held at the Great Hall of the People in Beijing. The Conference was followed by more than three thousand Chinese youth from across the globe raising a 10,000-foot-long dragon on the Great Wall, successfully breaking the current Guinness World Record for the longest dragon dance.

With community support and encouragement, The Dragon Foundation was set up and takes forward the aims manifested by the “Dragon at the Great Wall”. The Foundation was established in Hong Kong and inaugurated on 12 February 2000. The Honourable Tung Chee-hwa, then Chief Executive of HKSAR and the Honourable Elsie Leung, then Chief Justice of HKSAR, officiated at the Inaugural Ceremony.

The Foundation was incorporated under the Companies Ordinance and registered as a non-profit making, charitable organization. The fundamental objectives of the Foundation are to develop leadership skills and nurture the innovative and creative talents of ethnically Chinese youth from around the world, while also encouraging and facilitating the creation of exchange networks amongst them. The Foundation also provides opportunities for community building and recognises the outstanding achievements of youth in various professions. A Board of Directors for the Foundation was set up, which includes representatives of The Hong Kong Federation of Youth Groups and the HKSAR Government and prominent leaders from various sectors of the community. The Foundation’s Secretariat is administered by The Hong Kong Federation of Youth Groups.

Vision

Message from the Chairman

This is the fourth time that as the Chairman of the Board of Directors of The Dragon Foundation, I address our stakeholders on the Foundation's latest development. Together with our very dedicated directors, committee members and team of staff, I pledge to spare no efforts in providing quality programmes and training activities for our young ethnic Chinese leaders in support of the development of Hong Kong.

Human resources are the most important factor in Hong Kong's success story. The Dragon Foundation supports long-term, all-round development for youth, first and foremost, and helps the younger generation to excel in order to fulfil our mission. We first expanded the Global Citizenship Programme to Europe and the theme of the fourth Global Citizenship Programme was "Ethical Interdependence." The number of participants doubled from 30 to 60 in 2007 with groups going to New York and Geneva. Nominations were invited from all ten universities in Hong Kong. The Dragon 100 Young Chinese Leaders Forum 2007 took 100 Chinese youth leaders from 14 different cities and countries to forums in Hong Kong and Henan, with its rich Chinese history and rapid recent development. The Lecture Series for Youth Leaders is also well received by the community. This year we were privileged to have Dr. Louis L.Y. Cha (查良鏞), eminent modern Chinese novelist, as a speaker.

As always, fundraising is a challenge. The Foundation held a Charity Premiere of "Spider-Man 3" on 27 April at the Palace IFC Theatre with The Hon. Ambrose Lee, IDSM, JP, Secretary for Security, as our officiating guest. The Committee was co-chaired by Mr. Wilfred Ng and Mrs. Nina Lam. And of course, a very special thanks to Ms. Shelley Lee, Dr. Rosanna Wong, and the entire Programme and Fund Raising Committee for all their efforts. The event succeeded in raising $653,357 for the Foundation. On behalf of everyone, I would like to extend my sincere thanks to all our other generous sponsors, both individual and corporate.

I must also take this opportunity to extend my heartfelt gratitude to my fellow Directors, government departments, universities, corporations, organizations and the many individuals who helped us to lay a solid foundation for our future development. And on behalf of the Board, I thank the management and staff members for their hard work. It will be on this very firm footing that we continue to nurture our younger generation, serve our community, and meet the new demands of this fast-changing world. Unique to Hong Kong, The Dragon Foundation sees itself fulfilling an important role, nurturing young ethnic Chinese worldwide as leaders of tomorrow.

Highlights of the Year

1. Dragon 100 Young Chinese Leaders Forum 2007

Since it began in 2002, the Dragon 100 Young Chinese Leaders Forum has become an annual flagship programme. Bringing together 100 young leaders of Chinese origin from around the world, the aim is to establish networks and generate synergy which enables them to contribute to society.

The 100 outstanding participants in 2007 were selected from nominations made by local and overseas universities, organizations and businesses in 14 locations. The Selection Panel was led by Professor Wong Yuk-shan, Vice-president for Administration and Business and Professor of Biology at The Hong Kong University of Science and Technology. Members were Dr. Angela Ho Suk-ping, Head of the Educational Development Centre at The Hong Kong Polytechnic University, and Miss Junia Ho Suk-yin, JP, Member of the Programme and Fund Raising Committee of the Foundation. In August 2007, the Dragon 100 went on a nine-day tour of Hong Kong and Henan with Ms. Shelley Lee as their Delegation Leader. The theme was “In the Footprints of the Dragon: Chinese Culture and the Life of Chinese People”.

Mr. Xie Xiaoyan, Deputy Commissioner of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of The People's Republic of China in the HKSAR was Guest of Honour at the Commissioning Ceremony held in Hong Kong. All the participants agreed that the study trip enabled them to understand and identify themselves more clearly as being ethnically Chinese. They also gained a more thorough understanding of recent developments in China.

2. Global Citizenship Programme

Into the Future

Building on our Strengths

2007/08 was a hectic but fruitful year for the Dragon Foundation. Under the able leadership of the Board of Directors, and with the dedication and hard work of our Programme and Fund Raising Committee members, we made solid progress and achieved positive results upon which we must now build. To do so, we will continue to develop close links and collaboration with universities, the government, mainland and international youth organizations and Chinese communities worldwide. We are confident that with resolve our work will continue to flourish.

Making Great Strides

To ensure that we stay focused, responsive and able to continue to provide high quality programmes, we will stress the following:

Refining programmes

Given our commitment to the younger generation, our staff devote all their energies to preparing programmes that work towards this goal. Cooperation on the Global Citizenship programme with the Institute of International Education will continue. The next programme will again emphasise “Ethical Interdependence”, with delegations to New York and Geneva.

The Dragon 100 Young Chinese Leaders Forum will continue to focus on history, culture and recent developments in China. The aim is to help participants explore their common heritage and reaffirm their sense of identity. It is also hoped that this will help to strengthen the connections between overseas Chinese youth and the motherland.

We will continue to explore opportunities with new partners through programmes and charity events. It is hoped that Members of the new Programme Board and the Fund Raising Committee, and generous support from various partner organizations and the public, will enable the Foundation to continue its journey.

Building ties

We will continue to establish and strengthen ties between our partners, donors, collaborators, student associations, universities and the community. We will facilitate contact between our young “dragons,” various organization and entrepreneurs.

Creating synergy

We have established a Dragon alumni network called DragoNation with past participants of the Global Citizenship programmes, the Dragon 100 Young Chinese Leaders Forum and the 2001 Study Tour to the Western Part of Mainland China. Each year, the growing number of members will be able to help new programme participants. DragoNation will also publish the Dragon e-newsletter for its members and affiliate organizations of The Dragon Foundation. It will serve a bridge for youth exchange, advocacy and continued training.

Developing new resources

The present economic turbulence and increasing costs of operations will make fund raising more difficult. The Dragon Foundation will nevertheless seize all opportunities to develop new forms of fund raising. With the support of the new Programme and Fund Raising Committee, we will make every effort to build resources and maintain support from businesses, organizations and individuals.

Acknowledgements

This year, as in the past, we recognise that our work would have been impossible without the dedication and commitment of the Board of Directors and Programme and Fund Raising Committee Members. We acknowledge their passion, and thank them for their shared time and wisdom, through which we have learnt not to become complacent about what we have.

In recognition of the dedication of our supporters and donors, we have nominated three partners: Glory Day Limited, Prince Jewellery & Watch Co, and International Herald Tribune, for the 2007–2008 Caring Company Logo organized by the Hong Kong Council of Social Services. The Dragon Foundation would also like to express its most sincere thanks to all the following donors for their generous help during the year 2007-2008.
