About The Dragon Foundation

The year 2000 was celebrated both as the start of the new millennium, as well as the Year of the Dragon in Chinese culture. To commemorate this auspicious date, The Hong Kong Federation of Youth Groups, the Home Affairs Bureau of the Hong Kong Special Administrative Region (HKSAR) Government and the All-China Youth Federation co-organized a project entitled, "Dragon at the Great Wall – Commemorating the New Millennium: a Vision for Youth".

What the project entailed was a Youth Conference on Meeting the Challenges of the New Millennium. The main theme of the Conference was Visualizing the Trends of Global Development and the Challenges of the 21st Century and was held at the Great Hall of the People in Beijing. The Conference was followed by more than three thousand Chinese youth from across the globe raising a 10,000-foot-long dragon on the Great Wall, successfully breaking the current Guinness World Record for the longest dragon dance.

With community support and encouragement, The Dragon Foundation was set up and takes forward the aims manifested by the “Dragon at the Great Wall”. The Foundation was established in Hong Kong and inaugurated on 12 February 2000. The Honourable Tung Chee-hwa, the-then Chief Executive of HKSAR and the Honourable Elsie Leung, the then Chief Justice of HKSAR, officiated at the Inaugural Ceremony.

The Foundation was incorporated under the Companies Ordinance and registered as a non-profit making, charitable organization. The fundamental objectives of the Foundation are to develop leadership skills and nurture the innovative and creative talents of ethnically Chinese youth from around the world, while also encouraging and facilitating the creation of exchange networks amongst them. The Foundation also nurtures a spirit of service and civic responsibility towards the community. It furthermore recognises the outstanding achievements of youth in various professions. A Board of Directors for the Foundation was set up, which includes representatives of The Hong Kong Federation of Youth Groups and the HKSAR Government, along with prominent leaders from various sectors of the community. The Foundation’s Secretariat is administered by The Hong Kong Federation of Youth Groups.

Vision

Message from the Chairman

It is hard to believe that The Dragon Foundation is completing nine years of organising, nurturing, encouraging and serving young people of Chinese origin from around the world.

The Foundation really has been blessed over the past years. In spite of economic difficulties, staff constraints and sometimes logistical hindrances, the programmes that we have organised have not only been well attended, but have also proved to be successful and informative according to participant feedback.

For me personally, I am particularly appreciative of how the Foundation has inspired a new generation of young people to public engagement. By serving the community or building networks across countries and languages, these young people have made a difference. That they have also been enriched by learning more of their own cultural heritage and tradition speaks to the uniqueness of the Foundation and its mission.

I am also deeply grateful to all our supporters, donors, friends and colleagues. Because of your great support of and trust in the work of the Foundation, we have been encouraged and thus enabled to carry out our varied programmes. Thank you very much.

I would also like to thank all the young people who have participated in the programmes. By becoming involved, you have taken up the challenge of the Dragon. You have committed yourselves to service and leadership. This is a great, but noble, responsibility and I wish you all success in the future.

Finally, to the staff and management of The Dragon Foundation; it is only by your hard work and dedication that The Dragon Foundation has been able to thrive for the past nine years. With your continued efforts and enthusiasm, I have no doubt that the Foundation will continue to grow and prosper for the next decade and beyond! Thank you too very much.

May the Spirit of the Dragon live on!

T.L. Yang

1. Dragon 100 Young Chinese Leaders Forum 2008

The Dragon 100 Young Chinese Leaders Forum is a flagship programme of the Foundation since 2002, bringing together 100 young leaders to reflect upon a specific theme, while also having the opportunity for travel, exchange and exposures.

The theme for 2008 was “Thirty Years of Reform and Opening-up on the Mainland China”, focusing on the rapid economic development of the recent China.

The participants were selected from nominations of local and overseas universities, organizations and businesses in 15 countries and places. The Selection Panel was led by Foundation Director, Mr. David Lan Hong-tsung. Members include Dr. Cherry Leung Yuen-yee, Honorary Consultant, Federation of Hong Kong Guangdong Community Organizations, and Mr. Stanley Yeung Chee-tat, Member of Programme and Fund Raising Committee of the Foundation. Yang as its Delegation Leader, and Delegation Advisors including Dr. Rosanna Wong Yick-ming, Ms. Shelley Lee Lai-kuen, and Mr. David Lan Hong-tsung.

Due to adverse weather conditions, the Opening Ceremony had to be cancelled. In spite of this, the Forum was well supported by Professor the Honourable K.C. Chan, SBS, JP, Secretary for Financial Services and the Treasury as the invited Guest of Honour. The delegation had the privilege to have Professor Lau Pui-king, JP, Associate Professor, School of Accounting and Finance, The Hong Kong Polytechnic University to speak on the topic of “The Open Door Policy of China and its Impact to the World”.

During the Mainland programme, the delegation visited sites of economic significance to the rapid development of the Pearl River Delta Region which included the Yantian International Container Terminals, New Island Printing Holdings Limited, Esquel Group, and the Guangdong Shipyard International Company Limited. In Guangdong, they were honoured to meet with Ms. Wang Hongyan, Secretary of the All-China Youth Federation. They also visited the Hong Kong Economic and Trade Office in Guangdong of the HKSAR Government and met the Deputy Director, Ms. Alice Choi. In Jiangmen and Zhongshan, they were well received by government officials including Mr. Xie Rirong, Deputy Mayor of the Jiangmen Government, Mr. Huang

Yuesheng, Standing Member and Secretary-General of the Jiangmen Committee of the CPC, Mr. Benjamin Liang, Chairman of the Jiangmen Youth Federation, and Mr. Du Minqi, Chairman of the Zhongshan Committee of Communist Youth League of China and The Youth Federation of Zhongshan. They also gained a more thorough understanding of recent development trends in China.

2. Global Citizenship Programme

The Global Citizenship Programme is organized to inculcate a sense of responsibility in young people while raising their awareness of global trends. It provides international exposure and training for young Chinese leaders, maximizing their capacity to create networks for sharing and mutual exchange, and encouraging dedication to the community.

The programmes comprised two days of orientation and training in Hong Kong and a week overseas for each group. There were visits to non-governmental and international organizations in both cities and iconic centres of innovation and creativity in New York.

The Geneva Programme focused on international organizations in Europe, and the New York Programme emphasized creativity in media and entertainment as well as innovation in the urban environment in New York. Projects and other exposure also helped participants acquire information and skills expected of young leaders in a global era. There was encouraging feedback from guest speakers, participants, the media and the public about the Foundation’s efforts to create and support a global network of future leaders.
